

Practice Application and Reference Protocol

NAME _____	DATE _____	PERIOD _____
------------	------------	--------------

Simulation Boundary

Complete every field with the fictional Jordan Rivera case or N/A. Do not enter your real address, phone/email, birth date, SSN, student ID, driver's-license data, banking/tax data, family information, availability constraints, signature, or another person's contact information.

Why a complete truthful application matters:

When to use N/A:

Fictional Identity and Target

Applicant: Jordan Rivera · jordan.rivera@example.com · Irving, Texas

Desired position: _____

Official/teacher source: _____

How did Jordan learn about it? _____

Authorized contact route: teacher simulation only

Why Jordan is interested:

Education and Activities

School: Fictional Irving Middle School · Grade 8 · expected promotion 2027

Relevant courses/projects/activities:

Skills with evidence:

Experience Record

Experience type: class supply checkout project

Role: student inventory coordinator · Dates: six-week classroom project

Responsibilities and results:

Second experience/activity or N/A:

Why unpaid school/activity evidence can still be relevant:

Availability and Applicant Statements

For this simulation, use: after-school student schedule; details discussed only through an authorized process.

One availability question to clarify:

What Jordan can truthfully say about job duties and supervision:

What Jordan must not claim:

Reference Types and Selection

Reference A: teacher who supervised the inventory project.
Reference B: activity sponsor who observed teamwork and attendance.
Reference C: adult supervisor from the school family event.
No names or contact details are used.

Best reference for accuracy/organization + why:

Best reference for communication/dependability + why:

Why family/friends are usually weaker than someone who observed relevant work:

Ask Permission Before Sharing

Draft only; do not send.

Subject: Reference permission for a fictional classroom application

Greeting and request:

Position/skills the reference may be asked about:

Ask for preferred contact route and permission to share it:

Closing/thanks:

Final Application Audit

- ☐ instructions read first;
- ☐ every field completed or N/A;
- ☐ target title is specific;
- ☐ application matches the fictional evidence card/cover letter;
- ☐ relevant skills have evidence;
- ☐ no false work history or credential;
- ☐ no real personal/reference data;
- ☐ reference permission comes before sharing information;
- ☐ proofreading complete;
- ☐ no real submission/contact.

One inconsistency I found and fixed:

One field that might vary across real applications:
