

Fictional Property Evidence Report and Briefing

NAME _____ DATE _____ PERIOD _____

Evidence Boundary and Finding 1

This is a Grade 8 evidence-writing exercise, not a licensed inspection report.

Fictional analyst ID or fictional name: _____

Fictional property: 1212 W Blue Rd Date: _____

Word bank: observe/observar · could indicate/podría indicar · evidence limit/límite de evidencia · qualified/calificado · corroborate/confirmar con otra evidencia

Use this frame: I observe [visible clue]. This could indicate [possibility]. The image cannot prove [limit]. A qualified [role] should evaluate it next.

Image/area: _____

Visible observation:

Cautious possibility and evidence limit:

Qualified follow-up role and why:

Findings 2 and 3

FINDING 2

Image/area: _____

Visible observation:

Cautious possibility and evidence limit:

Qualified follow-up role and why:

FINDING 3

Image/area: _____

Visible observation:

Cautious possibility and evidence limit:

Qualified follow-up role and why:

Findings 4 and 5

FINDING 4

Image/area: _____

Visible observation:

Cautious possibility and evidence limit:

Qualified follow-up role and why:

FINDING 5

Image/area: _____

Visible observation:

Cautious possibility and evidence limit:

Qualified follow-up role and why:

Thermal Evidence and Report Summary

Visible temperature pattern, including hotter/cooler area:

One possibility a qualified professional could investigate and the additional evidence needed:

Overall evidence summary without diagnosing the property:

One important report limitation:

30–45 Second Professional Briefing Planner

Image and area: _____

1. What I observe:

2. What it could indicate:

3. Evidence limit:

4. Qualified follow-up role and why:

5. Work product that worker would create or use next:

Phrase that keeps my claim accurate: _____

Briefing options: live teacher conference · private audio/video · accommodation-aligned oral/AAC route