

Cater and Create Event Brief

NAME _____

DATE _____

PERIOD _____

Part 1: Read the client and set the business goal

Use Find Your Future pp. 119-120. You own a catering company that creates a connected food and event experience. This is a fictional plan. Do not use real client names, contact information, addresses, or payment details.

Event: ☐ After Dark at the Zoo ☐ Skateboarding Showcase ☐ Read-A-Thon ☐ Local festival ☐ Other:

Feeling: ☐ Calm/elegant ☐ Bright/energetic ☐ Cozy/warm ☐ Bold/creative ☐ Other: _____

Who is the client or audience?

What must guests remember about the event?

One limit involving time, budget, staffing, space, allergies, accessibility, or weather:

ENTREPRENEURSHIP CHECK

An entrepreneur is a person who starts and operates a business while taking responsibility for its decisions and risks. What would this catering owner sell besides food?

Part 2: Design the connected experience

THEMED MENU

Name at least three foods or drinks and explain how the names, ingredients, or presentation support the chosen feeling.

TABLE AND SPACE

Show colors, flowers/decor, signs, seating, and one accessibility choice. Use labels.

ENTERTAINMENT AND TAKE-HOME TOUCH

Entertainment: _____

Take-home detail: _____

How do both choices support the same feeling?

Part 3: Client test and revision

Partner, self, or teacher check:

- ☐ The menu and space feel like the same event.
- ☐ The plan responds to the named client or audience.
- ☐ The plan includes one practical limit.
- ☐ The owner sells a complete service, not only a drawing.
- ☐ No real personal or payment information appears.

One specific strength:

One change that would make the plan clearer or more workable:

Revision I made:

Why a client might pay for this complete experience:

Build route: ☐ Paper ☐ Canvas file ☐ Canva ☐ Adobe Express ☐ Other approved route
