

Mid-Year Evidence Reflection

NAME _____ DATE _____ PERIOD _____

Evidence strip and Part 1

Use this paper route only when your teacher assigns the reflection as recovery or replacement evidence. The private Canvas text, upload, or media route is the default.

Earlier prediction or assumption: _____

Current career direction: _____

Source or class experience that changed my thinking: _____

Class tasks showing two skills: _____

Accurate professional-association fact: _____

One unanswered question: _____

PART 1: CHANGE IN MY THINKING

Write 4-5 sentences. Include a before/now contrast, one source or class experience, and why the evidence mattered.

Use this frame: At first, I thought [earlier idea]. After [source or class experience], I now think [current idea]. The evidence that mattered was [specific fact or result] because [reason]. I still need to verify [unanswered question] before I decide [next choice].

Part 2: Two transferable skills

SKILL 1

Skill and class task: _____

Visible action that proves the skill:

How it could transfer to a different career:

SKILL 2

Skill and class task: _____

Visible action that proves the skill:

How it could transfer to a different career:

Use this frame: I used [skill] when I [visible class action]. That skill could transfer to [different career] because a worker there must [specific job task].

Part 3: Professional-association decision

Professional association: _____

Verified membership benefit:

Membership access, cost, or eligibility fact:

Limitation or unanswered question:

Why this is a realistic association to investigate:

Use this frame: [organization] is a professional association. Membership could help me [verified benefit], but I must verify [access, cost, or eligibility fact] before I [next action].

Part 4: Two next actions and revision

JOB	ACTION 1	ACTION 2
Specific action
Time or deadline
Support person or source
Completion evidence
Backup if blocked

How these actions connect to my current direction:

Weakest rubric criterion before revision: _____

Revision I made:

One unsupported or overconfident claim I removed:

Private submission: ☐ Canvas text ☐ Upload ☐ Private media ☐ Paper