

First Resume Draft

NAME _____ DATE _____ PERIOD _____

Privacy-Safe Header and Target

This is a private school résumé draft. Do not enter a home address, personal phone, personal email, date of birth, student ID, Social Security number, photo, family information, references, or another person's contact information. Use a school-approved email only if the teacher directs it.

Name or approved student label: _____

City and state only, if approved: _____

Target opportunity or career direction:

Optional one-sentence summary of what you can contribute:

Education and Relevant Learning

Current school: _____

Anticipated promotion/completion date, if approved: _____

Relevant classes, projects, or training—list only what is true:

One project bullet using action + task + result or purpose:

Skills With Evidence

Avoid a list of vague traits. For each skill, give a project, class, activity, service, or responsibility that demonstrates it.

Skill 1 + evidence:

Skill 2 + evidence:

Skill 3 + evidence:

Technical tools or languages I can honestly use:

Experience, Projects, Activities, or Service

Paid work is not required. Use a real school project, family responsibility, club, sport, volunteer experience, informal helping, or teacher-supplied scenario. Do not invent dates, titles, hours, awards, or results.

Entry 1—role/project, organization/context, dates or time period:

Two evidence bullets:

Entry 2—role/project, organization/context, dates or time period:

Two evidence bullets:

One-Page Resume Assembly Check

Check before you format or copy into an optional tool:

- ☐ standard headings make sections easy to find;
- ☐ every claim is true and specific;
- ☐ bullets begin with clear action words;
- ☐ spelling, dates, capitalization, and verb tense are consistent;
- ☐ no sensitive personal information or reference contact appears;
- ☐ formatting is readable and not dependent on color or graphics;
- ☐ the strongest evidence matches the target opportunity.

My strongest bullet and why:

One section that needs evidence:

My revision plan:
