

Mid-Year Career Blueprint

NAME _____ DATE _____ PERIOD _____

Build one current plan from the week's evidence

This is a mid-year choice, not a permanent promise. A supported change of direction can earn full credit.

1. Who I am now

Earlier assessment or profile result:

One part that still fits and one part that changed:

Two current interests, skills, values, or experiences that matter:

1. _____

2. _____

2. My current career goal

Career: _____

One visible part of the work and two hidden parts:

One Quick Sim career and education choice:

One expense choice and the tradeoff it created:

3. My current pathway direction

Irving ISD pathway: _____

Campus or center shown on the current district page: _____

One course, requirement, or access question to verify:

One CTSO, club, project, or experience that could help me test this choice:

Backup direction if my first choice does not fit:

4. Evidence and trade-off

Best evidence that this career and pathway fit me:

One real trade-off or uncertainty:

5. My next action

Within the next six weeks, I will:

Person or resource that can help:

How I will know I completed the action:

6. Mid-year recommendation

My current recommendation to myself is:

☐ keep this as my top direction

☐ keep it as one option while I compare

☐ investigate a different direction

Write six to eight sentences. Use evidence from your profile audit, saved Quick Sim, and pathway decision. Include one trade-off and one next action.

Submission check

- ☐ My plan connects an earlier result to current evidence.
- ☐ My Quick Sim evidence names a career, education choice, expense, and tradeoff.
- ☐ My pathway name and campus come from a current district page.
- ☐ I included one uncertainty and one next action.
- ☐ I did not submit private profile screenshots.
